Career Summary

Mr. Turkell is a Director with the Miami office of HFF with over eight years experience in commercial real estate. He has extensive knowledge of all major real estate product types with a specialization, distressed assets, non performing note sales, and real estate restructuring, particularly in the multi-housing and lodging property classes.

Mr. Turkell joined the firm in early 2007. Prior to joining HFF, he practiced real estate law at an international law firm headquartered in Miami. While there, Mr. Turkell executed several large commercial and residential real estate transactions, served as a title insurance agent, drafted mortgages, promissory notes and other transactional documents, and counseled clients on legal issues related to real estate acquisitions and dispositions. Mr. Turkell graduated from Duke Law School in 2005 and then received a masters of law in Real Estate Development and Finance from the University of Miami.
